How to find us

Nuremberg is famous for its imperial castle and the medieval old town. In addition to the many other sights, such as the imposing Schöner Brunnen (Beautiful Fountain), the important churches or the Historic Rock Passages deep under the city, Nuremberg also shines with a diverse museum landscape. From the largest cultural history museum in the German-speaking world, the Germanisches Nationalmuseum, to the Albrecht Dürer House and the New Museum of Art and Design, everything can be found in Nuremberg. And to ensure that every visitor can find out the information they want about the city and its history, a wide variety of guided tours and sightseeing tours offer the opportunity to explore the city.
